Passage 1 (Questions 41-43)

The protests over the depictions of the Muslim Prophet Muhammad have shocked the world. In Montreal, a Muslim leader organized a march to protest the cartoon, but he clearly stated that violence would not be tolerated. He also proposed that for a few days all the mosques around the city be open to the public. Through this, he was hoping that people would get a better understanding of Islam.

41. How did the protest in Montreal differ from the other protests?
 (A) It only took place inside mosques.
 (B) It was organized by one individual only.
 (C) It included non-Muslims.
 (D) It did not become violent.
42. What did the religious leader recommend to be done?
 (A) Mosques around the city must welcome non-Muslims to visit.
 (B) All the mosques should close their doors.
 (C) Everybody in Montreal should become a Muslim.
 (D) Muslims must visit churches.
43. What CANNOT be said of the religious leader?
 (A) He is peace-loving.
 (B) He has innovative ideas.
 (C) He is a radical.
 (D) He encourages communication.

Passage 2 (Questions 44-47)

Is beauty only skin-deep? For those who care about their looks, the answer apparently is Yes? In fact, people are embracing cosmetic surgery more than ever before. This is especially true in Asia. In 2002, doctors in Taiwan performed over 1 million procedures. That is twice the number they did five years earlier. In South Korea, about 10 percent of adults are estimated to have had cosmetic surgery. Thailand even promotes and advertises plastic surgery tours.

Increasing personal income is the main reason for this beauty quest. Now that people have more money to spend, they want to use it to become more attractive. For example, cosmetic surgery is a way to complete for jobs. The reason is that bosses tend to choose the better-looking one between two equally qualified applicants. Cosmetic surgery used to be a female-only business. But today, many men also want to improve their appearance. They think better looks can improve their careers and their relationship.

As cosmetic surgery has become popular, clinics have sprung up everywhere. But not all doctors are real. Some are fakes who provide poor service but attract patients with low prices.

44. What is the best title for the passage?
(A) Vacation, Adventure, and Surgery?
(B) Cosmetic Surgery Booming in Asia
(C) Cosmetic Surgery: A Look at Looking Good
(D) Medical Tours Take the World by Storm
45. Cosmetic surgery is _____.
(A) becoming more acceptable
(B) totally outdated
(C) only for women
(D) only accepted by celebrities
46. All of the following statements illustrate the recent growth of cosmetic surgery EXCEPT _____.
(A) In Taiwan the surgery in 2002 doubled contrasted to those done five years ago.
(B) Bosses often choose the more attractive of two equally qualified candidates.
(C) Thailand offers plastic surgery vacation tours.
(D) Men are increasingly willing to undergo cosmetic surgery.
47. Which of the following statements can be supported by the passage?
(A) In the next 10 years, one in 10 adults will undergo cosmetic surgery.
(B) All cosmetic procedures are safe and painless.
(C) More men than women are convinced of the effect of cosmetic surgery.
(D) Not all clinics offer service of the same good quality.

Passage 3 (Questions 48-50)

Podcasting allows you to record a radio show, without the need for a radio station. You can publish audio files on the internet. It started to happen in 2004, and today it is getting very popular. It is different from just downloading files from the Internet. Instead, there are special software programs that check for new changes that have taken place. In other words, if there is a new radio show available, it will be downloaded when you connect to the Internet. The nicest thing about podcasting is that the listeners get to choose when they want to listen it!

48. What does podcasting mean?
(A) It is a way to connect to the Internet.
(B) It is a radio station.
(C) It is a way to publish audio files on the Internet.
(D) It is a new thing on the Internet.
49. Which of the following statements is true?
(A) There is only one new thing you can do with the Internet.
(B) Podcasting is a new way to publish audio files on the Internet.
(C) You don't need a radio station to get into podcasting.
(D) Few people like podcasting.
50. How is podcasting different from downloading alone?
(A) Podcasting uses special programs to look for updates.
(B) Podcasting is older than downloading.
(C) Podcasting is very popular.
(D) Podcasting is cheaper than downloading.
